LOCAL MUSIC CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT ON JANUARY 6

Miss Gertrude Cleophas and Miss Ruth Hutchinson
Will Be Artists

A meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Music club, of which Mrs. Mattison B. Jones is president, was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee, 301 South Central avenue, at which time arrangements were made for the concert to be given at Glendale Union High school the night of January 6. The artists who will appear at that time will be Miss Gertrude Cleophas, pianist, and Miss Ruth Hutchinson, vocalist.

Miss Cleophas is a newcomer to Glendale. She has appeared with the Minneapolis orchestra and the McDowell club of Los Angeles and has met with great success throughout the east. Miss Hutchinson is a resident of Los Angeles. She was the winner of the national contest of the Federation of Music clubs at Peterboro, New Hampshire. After winning this contest she was given a tour over the United States by the federation and met with wonderful success.

At yesterday's meeting announcement was made of the ruling of the high school board notifying the club that no more general admission tickets can be sold to any of the concerts, and, therefore, only members holding membership cards can be admitted in the future. The executive board members decided that in January the invitation will again be open for new members, who will be exempt from paying the first half-year's dues.

It is expected that a number of the music lovers of Glendale will take advantage of this as the concerts have proven to be very popular. It was voted at yesterday's meeting that a music member contest will be put on the last week in February, and Mrs. Dora Gibson was made general chairman. All of the other organizations will be asked to appoint committees to work under her direction. Details of this contest will be announced later. It is given in conjunction with the work of the County Music Federation Week, which is to be instituted by the Federation of Music clubs. Mrs. Jones is the head of that department of the federation and it is desired that Glendale be one of the first to start the work.

This Saves Money, but Not Time; and Time Is Money, Eh?

If you are a tourist and have plenty of time—
And prefer to save carfare, about a dime—

Take the advice of one of our readers who writes that the Eagle Rock car line solves the subject of Pacific Electric fares.

Every twenty minutes the one-man Eagle Rock car leaving Broadway and Brand boulevard makes connections with the Eagle Rock City yellow cars going to Los Angeles. It costs but 15 cents a trip that way, as against the proposed 22 cents to be charged by the red cars which traverse about half the distance.

But, of course, it will take twice as much time—

And time is money nowadays.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL TO BE BUILT ON SOUTH BRAND

Structure to Be on West Side of Brand Boulevard, Between Harvard and Colorado

Announcement is made today of a new commercial hotel for Glendale. It will be located on the west side of South Brand boulevard between Harvard street and Colorado boulevard.

In addition to a lobby and dining room downstairs there will be twenty-two rooms on the second floor. A. G. Davenport and E. R. Beal are the owners while the R. L. Kent company has the contract. It will cost approximately $25,000, cover 50 by 130 feet and be of brick construction. Work is to start at once.

It is understood that the entire building has been leased to parties experienced in catering to Glendale's needs and certainly this hotel will answer a great demand for the Brand boulevard business section which boasts only of rooming houses and apartments, there being no place where meals may be obtained with lodging under the same roof.

For Comfort of Patrons

The second floor will have eight rooms with baths, courts on the north, south and west and a balcony hall window on the east. On the lower floor there will be one small store room for a barber shop or something of service to the patrons while the lobby of the restaurant will provide a lounging room, rest rooms for men and women and spacious quarters for the rear for a workroom, laundry, storage room and kitchen.

The front of the building will be of a modern tapestry design, according to the R. L. Kent Company architects, and everything is going into the structure with the idea of making it a hotel for this city.

Today's World News In Brief (By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

EGYPTIAN NATIONALIST LEADER MYSTERIOUSLY GOES

LONDON, Dec. 29.—The Egyptian nationalist leader, Zaghloul, who was recently arrested in connection with riots at Cairo and elsewhere in Egypt, was taken on board a British ship today which sailed for a secret destination, said an Alexandria dispatch to the Daily Express.

DEMOCRATS MAKE SWEEPING ATTACK ON ARMS PARLEY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—A sweeping indictment of the whole armament conference for what was described as "its monumental failures" came today from the democratic side of the senate. The attack was launched by Senator King, democrat, of Utah, and was the first general assault on the conference from the democratic side other than that made by Senator Reed of Missouri.

RAIL TRAFFIC IMPROVES; HIGHWAYS IN BAD CONDITION

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—As a result of the cessation of the heavy rain in southern California railway traffic was reported greatly improved today. Interurban lines were rapidly being put into condition, but the highway system was badly demoralized owing to the floods. In only one spot was there danger today of damage from high water: This was east of Monrovia where the San Gabriel river smashed, through 1500 feet, of flood control embankment.

MAN KILLED WHEN AUTO IS STRUCK BY LOCOMOTIVE

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 29.—His automobile struck by a speeding locomotive, Howard L. Winston of Shelton, Wash., was instantly killed late yesterday and his body burned to a crisp when the machine burst into flames. Mrs. Winston, his wife, was thrown out of the automobile by the force of the impact but died later. The accident occurred at a grade crossing at Lake View, south of here. Trainmen declare that the engine was brought to a stop as soon as possible, but the auto was carried 300 yards before the train halted.

ONE OF LARGEST BANKS IN ITALY FORCED TO CLOSE

ROME, Dec. 29.—As a result of the moratorium decree the Banca Italiana Disconto, one of the biggest in Italy, failed to open its doors today. The banks are working hard to improve the financial depression caused by the liquidation of the Ilva Ansaldo companies. Large and clamorous crowds gathered in front of the bank. They became so threatening that the police cleared the street. It is understood that a large amount of American money is deposited in the bank. The capital of the bank is 315,000,000 lire. (The normal value of the Italian lire is 19 cents and three mills in American money.)

CHARGES OF ADDITIONAL HANGINGS MADE BY WATSON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Senator Watson of Georgia today laid before the senate committee investigating his allegations of indiscriminate killing of American soldiers in France additional charges that "ten or twelve men were hanged at Is-Sur-Tille." The latest statement is from Herbert L. Cadenhead, Greenville, Miss. If substantiated it would bear out the sworn testimony of George H. Taylor, of Philadelphia, who told the committee he saw twelve men hanged on two gallows at Is-Sur-Tille. "I have asked the committee to summon Cadenhead," said Senator Watson. "His statement and that of Taylor should utterly upset the statement of the war department that only eleven American soldiers were hanged in France."

MAIL BANDITS GET FROM $50,000 TO $100,000 LAST NIGHT

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 29.—A horde of government sleuths and municipal detectives were combing this city and surrounding towns today in search of the bandits who boldly stole a great big United States mail truck in front of the uptown station last night, then drove it to an alley nearly half a mile distant and grabbed a registered mail sack and escaped. The amount stolen is not known, government officials said today and it will be several days before it is. Various unofficial estimates place the loss anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000. The truck was stolen while the driver was in the uptown station to get the registered mail. It was his last stop before going to the main postoffice. He had left the engine running. When he came out of the branch station his truck had vanished.

ENGLISH PREMIER'S STATEMENT IS TAKEN AS WARNING

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Premier Lloyd George's statement that the Irish peace treaty must be ratified by Dail Eireann in its original form and that England will make no further concessions to the Sinn Fein was interpreted today as a direct warning to Eamonn DeValera. DeValera, who is leading the fight against ratification of the pact, had announced that when Dail Eireann reconvenes on January 3, he would introduce counter peace proposals which would revise the treaty entirely. Supporters of the pact, led by Michael Collins and Arthur Griffith are expected to make capital out of the premier's statement which will assist them when deliberations on the treaty are renewed next month. In the meantime Sinn Fein organizations throughout South Ireland continue to adopt resolutions in favor of ratification.

M'CORMICK DIVORCE WILL DIVIDE HUGE FORTUNE

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Lawyers are wrestling today with the problem of dividing one of the largest fortunes in the world as the aftermath of the rapid-fire divorce obtained yesterday by Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick from Harold F. McCormick, head of the International Harvester company. Settlement of the vast properties involved, it was learned today, has not even approached completion and it may be months before the final details of adjustment are worked out. No mention of property settlement was made in connection with the divorce proceedings. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCormick maintained silence today. "It is entirely too personal a matter to talk about," was the word sent to newspapermen by McCormick while Mrs. McCormick refused to issue a statement or talk with "interviewers." The head of the harvester company and his former wife were attendants last night at the performance of Salome by the Chicago Opera company. Neither gave any indication of perturbation over their domestic disruption. They occupied boxes at opposite sides of the "diamond horseshoe" and neither manifested by so much as a glance any knowledge of the presence of the other.

Son of Prominent Artist in Employ of Municipality

Among the most recent employees of the city of Glendale is Ralph Zenisek, son of Josef Zenisek, world-famous Czech-Slovakian artist. Mr. Zenisek, who is a naturalized American citizen, came to the United States in 1914 and has been employed in various sections of the country ever since. At present he is assisting in the office of the city engineer.

Mr. Zenisek's father was born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he subsequently became a student of art in the Kunst Akademie. He has also been associated with Piloy in Munich and in academies of art in Paris and Dresden. His paintings have been reproduced in some of the best known art publications in Europe, including the Leipziger Illustrierte Zeitung, the Illustrated London Daily News, Garden, Laube, Ueber Land and Meer and Zur Guten Stunde.

He has painted some of the most distinguished men in his time, among whom were the English Baron Parish, the famous sculptor Schirmer, the composer Dvorak, Kubelik and many other leading figures in "the old country."

Mr. Zenisek is planning on exhibiting some of his father's productions in this city within the near future.

BUSINESS MEN HEAR ADVANTAGES OF ROTARY CLUB

Organization Here Will Be Perfect at Meeting to Be Held Wednesday

Elliott B. Wyman, special representative of the district governor of Rotary clubs, accompanied by Will Stephens, president of the Los Angeles Rotarians, and Will R. Parker, past secretary, last night effected temporary organization here with C. C. Cooper, president of the First National bank, presiding.

Two dozen business men who have been selected for membership were present and the duties of a Rotarian told them by Messrs. Wyman, Parker and Stephens, the latter dwelling on the scope of the organization and its international character. Los Angeles will entertain the order next summer.

It was explained that the loneliness of a large city prompted Paul P. Harris, a Chicago attorney, to start the original Rotary club in 1905. It got its name because the four or five members lunched at a different place each week—in other words they rotated.

Idea Quickly Spreads

In 1908 a sister club was organized in San Francisco and the movement became quite active on the coast. Then it spread east and finally to Canada and England. In 1912 it became known as an international association.

There are now approximately 1100 clubs in existence with such countries as Canada, Great Britain, Scotland, Ireland, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Uruguay, Panama Republic, Canal Zone, China, Philippine Islands, Hawaii, India, Porto Rico, Japan, South Africa, Spain, Mexico, France, Australia and New Zealand.

The purposes of the Rotary club as explained last night are: The betterment of the individual member; the betterment of the member's business, both in a practical way and in an ideal way; the betterment of the member's craft or profession as a whole and the betterment of the member's home, his town, state and country and of society as a whole.

The first meeting of the full charter membership, at which time constitution and by-laws will be adopted and officers elected, will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building dining room next Wednesday noon.

Sons of Veterans to Hold Meetings in Legion's Hall

A very interesting meeting of N. P. Banks Camp No. 22, Sons of Veterans, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griffin, 205 West Acacia avenue, Tuesday evening, and at that time plans were made for a round-up of eligibles to the order.

It was also decided that the camp avail itself of the invitation offered by the American Legion for use of their hall, and after January 10 the Camp meetings will be held there.

Robert M. McGee was elected to membership on the Camp council. Further nominations and elections are scheduled for the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday, January 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin.

Isitt and daughters Margaret and Jane, Mrs. Margaret Cormack of Kansas, and Robert Sullivan and George Peddicord. Colonel Dan M. Smith Visiting Comrade Here

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith, commander of "The Battalion of Death," who was promoted for bravery upon the field of battle and is touring the state in the interests of the Anti-Saloon League, is visiting a comrade of the 90th Division, Colonel C. W. Everington of 531 North Louise street. Colonel Smith is accompanied by his wife.

Final Nominations to Be Made by Legion

The last meeting of 1921 will be held tonight at 610 East Broadway by the local post of the American Legion. Final nominations will be received for the election to be held at the next session. Reports of retiring committees will be submitted. Commander Emil Kiefer stated this morning that about ten candidates would be initiated.

Welfare Council Well Pleased by Aid Given

Mrs. E. D. Yard, president, states that the executive board of the Glendale Welfare Council is very grateful and wishes to thank the churches, Masonic organizations, schools, private individuals, the Boy Scouts of troop 2, under the leadership of Benjamin Robinson, for their generous contribution of clothing, money and food stuffs, members of the Hi-Y, under the leadership of Edwin Murphy, the Girls' League of Glendale Union High School, of which Doris Packer is president, for their most bountiful contributions of toys, clothing and foods, and the P. E. O. and other organizations who so generously helped with contributions for the needy children and families of Glendale at Christmas time.

Mrs. Yard states that there were thirty-four families who were remembered by the Welfare Council at Christmas.

Costs Less to Smile, Asserts Rev. Norton

"I have thought seriously that it costs less to smile than it does to frown," declared Rev. C. R. Norton, 501 East Wilson avenue, last night at the First Methodist church. "In meditating on this fact, I have concluded that I will go through the world smiling and with as little frowning as possible. Sometimes when a fellow gets a bad bump, I know what he feels like."

Rev. Norton related an anecdote of an optimist with the nickname of "Thankful" who fell out of a large apple tree and broke a limb. "Well," says he, "thank goodness, it wasn't worse."

In concluding, Rev. Norton exclaimed fervently: "I pray that God may give us great victory this year in our church work."

Mr. and Mrs. Wheelon Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wheelon of 116 South Kenwood street were hosts to a number of their friends last Sunday night when they entertained at a dinner party in celebration of their first wedding anniversary. Following the delicious five-course dinner the party of merry-makers adjourned to the living room, where they enjoyed the evening in dancing and music.

Those present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grist, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. A.
 W. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wagner, Miss Emily Pierce, Miss Anna Pierce and T. Ralph Goodman, all of whom are residents of this city.

Woman's Case Amazes Glendale

A business man's wife suffered for two years with sore, watery eyes, which pained day and night. Finally she tried simple camphor, hydrastis, witchhazel, etc., as mixed in Lavop-tik eye wash. This helped her AT ONCE. Another lady reports "It leaves eyes cool and fresh." One small bottle Lavopitik usually helps flamed eyes. Aluminum eye cup

Outlines Platform in Speech Given Last Night at the First Methodist Church

"The relationship between the individual and social Christianity" was discussed last night at the First Methodist church by Rev. G. Bromley Oxnam, professor of economics at the University of California.

After quoting from the Bible to illustrate the point that social conditions are discussed freely in both the new and old testaments, Rev. Oxnam outlined his platform as follows:

One—The individual must know the social demands of the book he professes to follow; that is, the Bible.
 He must likewise know the thought of the outstanding thinkers in the church and in addition the social and industrial thoughts of the so-called radicals outside. This is in order that his decisions and activity may be based upon a sound knowledge of facts.

In Actual Service
 Two—The individual must express the power and emotionalism generated in religious meetings in actual service.

Three—The individual must face the fact that in the future income is to be upon the basis of service rendered and not upon the basis of property owned.

Four—The individual must develop a faith so powerful that he actually believes the kingdom of God can be built upon the earth.

Five—The individual must have surging through his life the dynamic force of Christianity and test its validity by its development of a will set unflinchingly to do right.

Services Every Sunday At Chapel Are Planned

Regular Sunday morning and evening services will be held hereafter at the Chapel of Christian and Missionary Alliance, 306 East Chestnut street, according to a unanimous decision. Dr. L. E. Richardson, 1856 South Brand boulevard, was chosen as Sunday school superintendent.
 Rev. Frances, a returned missionary from Japan, will officiate as pastor during his stay in America.

Presbyterians Raise Fund in Relief Work

About $200 to aid the starving inhabitants of the Holy Land was raised Tuesday night by a large congregation at the Presbyterian church during the Christmas program. The collection will be turned over to the Near East Relief.

The principal feature of the program was a short cinema reel depicting "Children of Sorrow in Bible Lands." Christmas candy was distributed to the youngsters.

It is said that matrimony ends a woman's career, but the man who acts as a motor for a baby carriage is still in the push.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

A Way With Americans
Principles of Industry
Service for Advertisers
Hays Thanks Publisher

By Gil A. Cowan

A REAL ripple of excitement is being caused today by the stories thrown into the Glendale Union High School bond election. It seems that the $85,000 does not concern the people half as much as where it will be spent.

That is the way with Americans. They don't give a Continental how much an article costs, but they do want it to accomplish the results they are after, selfishly or otherwise. There are altruists on both sides of a question. Likewise there are materialists.

As a general rule the altruist is the tool of the materialist. The United States has not forgotten the fair damsels who went to work in overalls to cut down the high price of living. Yes, they even used them as bathing suits.

And while clothing costs did adjust themselves somewhat, the price of overalls remained high and manufacturers made millions.

There is money to be made in manufacturing, even if the Ingersoll brothers have gone into the hands of a receiver. Where one industry fails two others will succeed, provided:

1. The output is sold for not less than cost.
2. The process is economical.
3. And the service of the article is worth its price.

The selling end and other factors usually take care of themselves otherwise.

Sick business indicates that the first mentioned difficulty has been encountered. Stunted business, pressed by competition, indicates a lack of economy along right lines. Falling off in sales shows the article is not worth the price to the buying public.

Economy in operation of any store, office or industrial plant is the stabilizing factor, it is generally found. That is Henry Ford's secret of success.

The Glendale Evening News has signed contracts with the Meyer-Both Company of Chicago for an advertising illustration service that is being used by the New York Globe, the Chicago American, The Kansas City Star, the St. Louis Star, the Denver Post and scores of other leading publications.

According to Fred Hatch, representing the company, it is the largest art service for stores of every description. The matrices, as a general rule, are sold to the most representative newspaper in each town and it in turn supplies the advertisers. The Wrigley interests, the Standard Oil company and many large mercantile concerns also purchase the service.

The Glendale Evening News takes pride in being able to present this service to the merchants of this city, but it goes farther and has the Bonnet-Brown "mat" service for the apparel lines. Not being satisfied, however, the Advertiser's Weekly Service has been added recently so that practically any illustration can be duplicated.

Advertisers should appreciate this impersonal service as well as that given by the experienced copy writers employed by this paper to aid in the preparation of subject matter. Business visitors in the city state that The Glendale Evening News' advertising department equals that of papers in cities of 100,000 or more people.

Governor Small Must Stand Trial, So Judge Decides

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Dec. 29.—For the first time in the history of Illinois a governor of the state must stand trial on criminal charges. Judge Claire C. Edwards, in circuit court here today ruled that a jury must decide the guilt or innocence of Governor Len Small, charged with embezzlement of state funds, and fixed January 9 as the date for the beginning of the trial.

Judge Edwards, rendering his decision in the Small-Curtis-Sterling case, quashed an indictment and a half, quashed half of the conspiracy indictment and all of the embezzlement indictment in which Governor Small, Fred E. Sterling, former state treasurer and at present lieutenant governor, and Vernon Curtis, Grant Park banker, were accused together.

He sustained an indictment and a half—half the conspiracy indictment and in entirety one indictment which accuses Small alone of embezzlement, the embezzlement charge covering the last six months of his term as state treasurer.

The embezzlement indictment against Small, Sterling and Curtis, which is completely knocked out, covered the term of Sterling as state treasurer, 1919 to 1921, during which Small was examiner of collateral in the state treasurer office and Curtis was alleged to have been an employee of Sterling. The court knocked out this indictment on the ground that the grand jury foreman's endorsement was not sufficiently in compliance with the statute.

With reference to the general charges against all indictments, the judge affirmed the truth of points made by the defense against the manner in which the grand jury was created, but then brushed these all aside, declaring that the board of supervisors, despite flaws in the matter of organization and procedure, became a "de facto" body.

Battle to Finish For Lower Prices By Federal Forces

By WM. K. HUTCHINSON
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.

The government's nation-wide drive against profiteering and food law violators gathered momentum today.

Launched by Attorney General Daugherty with an appeal to all state attorney generals for closer co-operation with federal prosecutors, it was indicated today that the movement forecasts a fight to the finish for lower prices.

The government, it was said, will use two legal weapons against profiteers. There are anti-trust laws in each state and the Interstate Commerce regulations. Enforcement of the state laws by state authorities will be augmented, it was learned authoritatively by department of justice agents in every state.

The government was balked in its original profiteering drive, it was pointed out, by the weakness of the Lever act, which was declared unconstitutional.

The state "profiteering laws," on the other hand, have repeatedly been upheld in the courts. It was learned that the department of justice has proved state laws very thoroughly and the decision that anti-trust laws could be used throughout the country in prosecuting profiteers induced the attorney general to launch his drive.

The process in each state, where state authorities welcome assistance, will be similar to that followed in the building trade probe in Chicago. Federal agents will gather evidence and "work up" cases which will then be laid before the state authorities for prosecution.

D. of V. Officers Will Be Installed Tuesday, Jan. 10

The last meeting for the year 1921 of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, was held Tuesday night in American Legion Hall, 610 East Broadway.

Preparations were made for the installation of officers for the coming year, which will be held jointly with the Sons of Veterans Tuesday night, January 10, in American Legion hall.

Very satisfactory reports were received from the committee on Christmas activities. The tent gift to the ex-service men at Thornycroft was a check in the amount of $20, to go to the furnishing of the recreation hall at that institution.

A large attendance is expected at the installation of officers, which will be a public affair. Mrs. Cora Jones was in charge of Tuesday's meeting.

congratulations on your accession to the honorable station you now fill. It will henceforth be your special duty to preserve inviolate the constitution and laws of the order; to dispense justice, reward merit, encourage truth and diffuse the sublime principles of universal benevolence.

"You will distribute alms to poor and weary pilgrims traveling from afar, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and bind up the wounds of the afflicted. You will inculcate the duties of charity and hospitality and govern your commandery with justice and moderation.

"May the bright example of the illustrious heroes of former ages whose matchless valor has shed undying lustre over the name of Knights Templar encourage and animate you to the faithful performance of every duty. Sir Knights, behold your Eminent Commander. Recollect, Sir Knights, that the prosperity of your commandery will as much depend on your support, assistance and obedience as on the diligence, fidelity and wisdom of your commandery. Be ye, therefore, attentive and faithful in the performance of your respective duties."

Other Officers Installed
A full commandery staff also was installed officially last night. Roy V. Hogue was created generalissimo; Robert W. Grumbling, captain general; W. W. Worley, senior warden; J. I. Wernette, junior warden; Oscar E. Van Owen, prelate; Frank H. Vesper, treasurer; Charles C. Rittenhouse, recorder; Sidney S. Gilhuly, standard bearer; J. Hartley Taylor, sword bearer; Omar Burt Richardson, warden; William H. Reynolds, third guard; Thomas H. Rank, second guard; and William N. McMullin, first guard.

Following the ceremonies, which concluded about 10 o'clock, a social hour was enjoyed by those present and a lunch of coffee and tamales was served in the banquet room.

A musical program was furnished during the evening by Dr. Joseph Marple, who sang accompanied by his wife on the piano, and by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, who are known on Chautauques as the Apollo Duo. An interpretive dance by little Blossom Moore, daughter of Sir Knight Clem Moore and a pupil of Mrs. Pearl Keller, received many compliments.

Last Times Today

CHARLES RAY

2 Minutes To Go!

Hear 'em yell when Ray gets going. He's a College Boy, dress-suited milkman and grid-iron star. And, of course, there's a girl to cheer him, too.

WE CAN'T SHOW ALL THE PICTURES BUT WE DO SHOW THE BEST

'2 MINUTES TO GO' LAST TIMES AT T.D.L. TODAY

Charles Ray Satisfying, Story Entertaining in Film Play

"Two Minutes to Go," the Charles Ray picture showing at the T. D. L. theatre for the last times today, combines most of the elements of a popular screen play. It is a story of a college boy, a dress-suited milkman and a grid-iron star. The story is ever furnished, fine dramatic moments, heart interest, splendid sets, excellent photography and a football game which will bring spectators to their feet and make them cheer as they did in "Scrap Iron," that pugilistic masterpiece.

What more could anyone ask? A boy working his way through his last year of college because his dad had fallen on poor days for the time being, rivalry over a very pretty and vivacious girl, trouble at college caused by his rival, a Halloween party and college boys' Halloween pranks, and then that wonderful and thoroughly exciting football game.

Add to this a satisfying and entertaining story, well knitted together, groups of pretty girls and well-dressed boys, and it would be hard to imagine a better combination.

Again—that football game, with every man a well-known football player, every umpire and referee and timekeeper a character known in the sporting world, and Charles Ray as the savior of his side, which is hard pressed right up to the close.

The stands and crowds are all there, the cheer leaders and the cheers themselves—yes, arranged in a most clever manner and calculated to make audiences "Rah!" with the very spirit of the thing, which gets right over the screen into the logs.

Well, Well! Douglas Fairbanks Is Poor! He Hasn't $100,000

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—"Doug Fairbanks hasn't $100,000 to his name. I don't think he has $50,000 up to the time he put on 'The Three Musketeers,'" John Emerson, who directed Doug in the latter production, gave this information to the Senate Finance committee conducting a hearing on the tariff.

"He borrowed $750,000 to put on 'The Three Musketeers,'" added Emerson, who declared there were not three stars in the industry who were overpaid.

Talk of fabulous salaries paid stars is only for the consumption of the public, Emerson said.

Holiday Program of Vaudeville for Week End at T. D. L.

There will be many resolutions made for the New Year but one of the best is to see the vaudeville show which is coming to the T. D. L. theatre tomorrow and Saturday. This holiday program has been prepared with the idea of having every act a headliner and Melklejohn and Dunn feel that this bill is hard to surpass.

Louis London, the Orpheum favorite, is often billed as the man with "the Million Dollar Voice" and he quite lives up to his reputation. He is one of the highest salaried artists in vaudeville with a selection of original songs and stories.

The famous Barnum and Bailey clown, Billy Lyle, is a novel comedian and juggler and his eccentric make-up is said to be as funny as the tricks he brings with him.

Quite different is the dainty dance divertissement which Mlle. Valeska Foss and her pretty partner have to offer as their part of the entertainment. The costumes for this act are especially beautiful.

The photoplay which will be shown, in addition to the vaudeville, will be Anita Stewart's latest, "Playthings of Destiny." This picture is a romance of the barren north and tropical shores. During the action of the photoplay a most realistic blizzard as well as tropical tornado furnish a great measure of suspense.

PROTECTION CLAUSE IN TREATY BASIS OF BIG FIGHT

Senate Is Planning Strong Opposition to Position Granted to Japanese

By J. BERT CAMPBELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—If Japan does not take herself out of the so-called "protection clause" of the four-power Pacific treaty, the United States probably will.

In making this declaration today Senator McNary, Republican of Oregon, announced his intention of proposing a reservation to the treaty which would eliminate the Japanese homeland from article I, if Japan herself does not insist upon such a reservation.

"The question of whether the treaty applies to the Japanese homeland or the Japanese possessions in the Pacific ocean is an all important one," Senator McNary said. "It is a crucial one—it goes to the heart of the armament conference."

"I do not believe that the United States can afford to enter into any agreement that would place the American people to use their resources in man and money power to aid Japan to preserve her political and territorial integrity."

Would Make Reservation "I shall, therefore, be glad to offer reservation to the treaty in case Japan does not, which will stipulate that so far as the United States is concerned the treaty does even imply a guarantee of Japan proper from external aggression."

"Just suppose that a rehabilitated Russia and a rehabilitated Germany should unite and with the advice and consent of a rehabilitated China, should pour military and naval forces into the Pacific. Surely we must serve notice, before the treaty is ratified that American sailors and soldiers will not be used to fight Japan's battles."

Senator Borah of Idaho said: "It is alone of small consequence whether the treaty is construed, as to include Japan proper in the term 'insular dominions' in article I. The main point I am sure the American people are beginning to understand is whether the treaty guarantees Japan territorial integrity in the Pacific."

Talks of Main Point "Japanese territory in the Pacific is not confined to 'insular dominions.' There are 'insular possessions' which come within the province of Japan. Shall the treaty be construed as 'protecting' Japan's 'insular possessions' from attack just as it is now being proposed in some quarters that the treaty shall not insure her 'insular dominions' from attack?"

"The main point seems to have been lost sight of. Article II does provide that if the rights of the 'high contracting parties' are 'threatened' by the aggressive action of any other power they 'shall communicate with one another, fully and frankly, in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient measures to be taken, jointly or separately, to meet the exigencies of the situation.' It is to quibble over the meaning of the term 'insular possessions' and 'insular dominions' in article I when the treaty palpably guarantees the territorial integrity of Japan in article II."

Further Opposition Senatorial circles were stirred by the receipt of word from Spokane and other cities of the state of Washington that Senator Poindexter had issued a statement there that he would oppose the four-power treaty if it were found to guarantee the territorial integrity of any part of the Japanese 'possessions' or 'dominions' in the Pacific. Before he left Washington recently, Poindexter said that he would support the treaty.

That, however, was before a difference of opinion developed between the White House and the State department as to the meaning of article I.

Census bureau analysis of reports reveals that the average American family consists of 4.3 persons. Forty years ago the average was five persons.

FIGHT FOR OIL LAND FARNUM FEATURE AT GLENDALE

'The Primal Law' Provides Dusty With Role of 'Big Brother'

"The Primal Law," a Fox photoplay dealing with the wonderful friendships of a child and the bitter struggle of men for the possession of valuable oil lands in the west, and presenting Dustin Farnum in the stellar role, will be the attraction at the Glendale theatre today. This star long has been popular in a wide variety of characters, winning fame as a matinee idol as well as in the roles of rugged adventurers. His popularity in western drama is pronounced.

In "The Primal Law" Dustin Farnum appears as half owner of Willow Ranch, a property sought for some mysterious purpose by a band of unprincipled conspirators. He becomes involved in fierce fighting and an interesting romance. Throughout he is the big pal of little Bobbie Carson, the motherless son of his partner, whom he is pledged to guard against the strange menace of circumstances.

The element of mystery is effectively developed, it is stated, and suspense admirably sustained. The arrival of the lovely eastern girl presents the possibility of a love theme, which develops in dramatic fashion, interwoven with stirring events growing out of the activities of the plotters.

The role of Brian Wayne is one which gives Dustin Farnum excellent opportunities for the display of his versatility and dramatic ability. The star is ably supported by Mary Thurman as leading woman, Harry Dunkinson, Philo McCullough, Frankie Lee, Mme. Marstini and others.

Expert Testimony on Insanity Given for Burch Defense

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—The second round of the defense fight to establish Arthur C. Burch, on trial for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, insane through the testimony of alienists was staged today when Dr. B. B. Hoag, one of the three experts who first declared Burch to be mentally unbalanced, was called to the witness stand.

Scientific reasons for Burch's alleged brain deterioration due, it is claimed, to dementia praecox in the paranoid form, were expected to be given by Dr. Hoag, who observed Burch at the county jail from the time he arrived here from Las Vegas, Nev., where he was arrested.

Three other alienists were in the courtroom to follow Dr. Hoag on the stand as defense experts.

The International News Service learned today that the Rev. W. A. Burch plans to take his son back to Chicago as he is acquitted by reason of insanity and to put him in an asylum there instead of in southern California.

Montrose District Is Growing Fast, So Water Report Shows

In a recent report of the officers of the Crescenta-Mutual Water company, which is owned and controlled by the residents of the La Crescenta and Montrose districts, it was stated that during the past ninety days a total of sixty-five consumers has been added on the "Montrose end" of the system. The growth has been so rapid during that time that plans are already under way to take steps toward the immediate enlargement of the capacity of the wells.

Eugene V. Debs at Home With His Wife

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 29.—Eugene V. Debs was fired today, very tired, but also very happy—the happiest he has been since that far-away day when he was placed behind prison walls to silence a voice that decried America's participation in the war.

He was happy to be back home again with his wife who bore his absence with such fortitude and to mingle with the hundreds who worked unceasingly for his liberation.

And as for weariness, occasioned by unwanted travel and the stress of two clamorous demonstrations in his honor, his buoyant spirit promised soon to dispel his fatigue.

Late yesterday in Indianapolis, the distinguished Socialist leader was subjected to a noisy demonstration, but last night upon his arrival home a reception eclipsing the other twenty-fold, was staged in his honor.

Man Dies as Result of Being Struck With Baseball Bat

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 29.—Norman D. Gould died in the county hospital here after a beating administered by Mrs. Caroline Rossi.

Mrs. Rossi says Gould, wearing a deputy sheriff's badge and carrying a revolver, appeared at her home and demanded money. When cash was refused, Mrs. Rossi says, Gould struck her in the face with the butt of his revolver.

"I picked up a baseball bat and struck him over the head," Mrs. Rossi says.

The blow split Gould's skull. Three young daughters of Mrs. Rossi saw the fight. Mrs. Rossi is the wife of the proprietor of a roadhouse.

Belgian Minister Will Be Announced Soon, Is Believed

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—A successor to Brand Whitlock, present American Minister to Belgium, will be nominated by President Harding as soon as a favorable report is received upon the name submitted to Brussels, it was stated at the White House today.

Under Secretary of State Fletcher has been most prominently mentioned for the post.

LIQUORS SAVED FROM FIRE

OAKLAND, Dec. 29.—Assorted liquors and wines of rare vintage valued by their owner at $200,000 were saved when fire destroyed the beautiful mansion of R. Clifford Durant on the Sequoia country club road. Durant estimated the loss at $150,000, largely covered by insurance. The fire had gained great headway before the firemen arrived and at the request of Durant, who superintended the operation, they confined their efforts to the wing covering the wine cellar, permitting its precious contents to be removed in safety.
